The police constable is entitled under the Supplementary Rule 121 to only double fare of the lowest class but he has drawn Rs 3-2-0 in addition as charges for conveying his luggage. The Pay & Accounts officer has ordered the recovery of the sum of Rs 3-2-0. The Agent, M. & S. M. The D. & P. now asks that either the Agent be asked to reconsider his decision or the Supplementary Rules be amended. Sir,

In December 1925 Railway Police constable 137 Abdul Aziz was transferred from Birur Railway Police Station to the Station Police on public grounds and he was granted 3rd class Railway fare from Birur to Bangalore - Rs. 4-10-0 for 2 tickets and actual charges for 5 maunds of luggage - Rs. 3-2-0 under Article 1094 C.S.R. as the Railway Pass Rules do not provide Free passes for men transferred from the Railway to the District Executive Force.

2. The Pay and Account officer has objected to the payment of charges for conveyance of luggage as the old Civil Service Regulations are not applicable in the case of travelling Allowances and he considers that the case should be brought under Rule 121 of the Supplementary Rules. He has ordered recovery of Rs. 3-2-0 from the constable.

3. In this connection, I have to point out that if men transferred from the Station Police to the Railway Police and vice versa are not granted either Travelling allowance or Railway free passes, it will not be possible to effect any transfers in future as they cannot be expected to bear the cost of a transfer on public grounds from their own pockets.

4. I request therefore that the Agent, M & S.M. Railway Company, Madras, may be addressed to issue free passes for men under transfer and to withdraw their claim in the case under reference.

The Secretary

Bangalore.

Sir,

With reference to your letter No.5941/63-1926 of the 10th July, 1926, and enclosure sent therewith from the District Superintendent of Police, Civil and Military Station, Bangalore, to your address, I have the honor to state that the issue of free duty railway passes (which includes transfer passes) to the Police force regularly employed on railway duty is strictly in accordance with the Government of India (Railway Board's letter No.11-E-16, dated 23rd July, 1918, and subsequent letter No.11-E-16, dated 27th June, 1921.) These orders do not provide for the issue of free railway passes in the case of Police transferred from the Railway to the District Executive Force, on public grounds, and it is regretted that this Administration cannot agree to the request of the District Superintendent of Police, C. & M. station, Bangalore, in this respect. The cost of fares in such cases would appear to be correctly chargeable to the Police Department.

Sir,

8. Reference your No. 7022/63.1926 enclosing reply from the Agent M & S.M. Railway, I would point out that this reply does not in the least solve the difficulty narrated in my No. 350/A/26. The Railway Company obviously fails to appreciate the fact that conditions in this Station are unique; I do not think that, anywhere else in India, the Railway Police and the Division Police are part of the same Force as they are here. A transfer on public grounds from the Railway Police to the Division Police (and vice versa) may be necessary for any one of a number of reasons - the Railway Police only number 100 men - but a constable should not be made to lose on a transfer when it is in the interests of the service and not for any fault of his own I will guarantee that such transfers will only be made when really necessary - the cost to the Railway Company will be infinitesimal but will be a serious matter to a policeman. I, therefore, request that the Agent may be asked to reconsider his decision and grant luggage passes for police constables on transfer to Division from Railway and vice versa. Failing this, I would ask that the Hon'ble the Resident be pleased to apply for an amendment to the Supplementary Rules allowing a constable so transferred to draw actual ^{charges} ~~charges~~ for carriage of personal effects.

Travelling Allowance of the Railway Police on Transfer to the District Police Force.

SIR,

I am directed to state that a Railway Police Constable employed on the railway lines under British Jurisdiction in the Mysore State was transferred to the Bangalore District Police Force on public grounds, both the railway and the District Forces being under the District Superintendent of Police, Civil & Military Station of Bangalore. The constable therefore drew double 3rd class fare and actual charges for 5 maunds of luggage. The Audit Officer has pointed out that the constable can draw only double third class fare under Rule ¹²¹ ~~212~~ of the Supplementary Rules and that the amount of actual luggage charges drawn by him should be refunded. The Agent, Madras & Southern Mahratta Railway who was addressed in the matter states that the Railway Board's orders do not provide for the issue of free railway passes in the case of police transferred from the Railway to the District Force. I am to enquire whether any similar difficulty has been experienced by Railway Police Constables under the Hon'ble the Resident's jurisdiction in Hyderabad and how the travelling allowances of the Railway Police on transfer to the District Force

A plan that may be considered is as follows:- The men of the Railway Police may be posted in the first instance to the Bangalore City or Cantonment Railway Station, the journey being covered by the free Railway pass.
